FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Date: Wednesday, January 21, 2015
Source: Kristi Northcutt, Anthem Community Council, knorthcutt@anthemcouncil.com, 623-742-6065
News tips/Keywords: Anthem, Anthem Civic Building, HOAs, ACC, local structure, Anthem Community Council

SORTING IT OUT: ANTHEM COMMUNITY COUNCIL, HOAs TO HOST TOWN HALL Q&A

Anthem, Ariz. – Who does what in Anthem? Attend a town hall style meeting Feb. 4, 6:30 p.m. at the Anthem Civic Building to get a clearer picture. The Anthem Community Council (ACC) and the three separate homeowner's associations in Anthem (HOAs) will offer a short presentation covering roles and responsibilities of their organizations, and then open the floor for resident comments and questions.

Each HOA -- Anthem Parkside Community Association, Anthem Country Club Community Association and The Village Condominiums Council of Co-Owners -- will have delegates from their Boards and staff in attendance and will break out into separate meeting rooms to engage with residents in an informal setting following the presentations. Anthem Community Council Community Executive Officer Jenna Kohl will moderate the evening.

Especially during election season, many residents -- some of whom are interested in running for Board seats -- are confused about the difference between the different HOAs and the ACC. This session is intended to clear up confusion about the community structure of Anthem and provide residents an opportunity to learn more about the roles of the officials elected and staff hired to serve the community.

A pizza dinner will be provided to all in attendance. Free childcare will be offered in the Game Room of the Anthem Civic Building (children must be potty-trained).

Learn more: http://www.onlineatanthem.com/news/acc-hoa-town-hall.

###