Anthem Community Council announces 2nd annual business award program

Nominations extended through November 15

Anthem, Ariz. – The Anthem Community Council (ACC) is proud to present for the second year the 2013 Business Awards program. This program compliments the ACC Board of Director's economic development initiative by recognizing efforts of local businesses to support the vibrancy of Anthem, and encouraging future reinvestments within the community.

Two awards will be presented: Excellence in Community Service and Exterior Commercial Property Improvements.

A team of judges will review all nomination forms and select one recipient for each category. Nominees must be Anthem (east, west, Arroyo Grande) assessment-paying, non-residential property owner, tenant, or home-based businesses.

Winners will be announced at the Business Holiday Reception event on Wednesday, December 4, at 5:30 p.m., Anthem Golf & Country Club, Ironwood, 41551 N. Anthem Hills Dr., hosted in conjunction with the Anthem North Gateway Chamber of Commerce (ANGCC). The Chamber will also be announcing their Business Person of the Year Award at this event.
