

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Date: Thursday, Dec. 11, 2014

Source: Kristi Northcutt, Anthem Community Council, knorthcutt@anthemcouncil.com, 623-742-6065

News tips/Keywords: Anthem, professional development, entrepreneurship, corporate, business

KELLER CENTER FOR CORPORATE LEARNING, ANTHEM COMMUNITY COUNCIL PARTNER TO PRESENT PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT SERIES AT ANTHEM CIVIC BUILDING

Anthem, Ariz. – Jumpstart 2015 with a free series of professional development workshops at the Anthem Civic Building beginning January 15. The series, presented by Keller Center for Corporate Learning at DeVry University, will offer six sessions through March.

Each session will be offered at noon (brown-bag “Lunch & Learn”) and 6:30 p.m.

- January 15: Personal branding
- January 29: Move in the right direction – putting career goals into action
- February 12: Time management
- February 26: The multi-generational workplace
- March 12: Starting a business/entrepreneurship
- March 26: Social networking for businesses

The series is free and open to the public. Register individually or a group of employees from a business. For more information or to register, visit OnlineAtAnthem.com/anthem-civic-building-programs. With questions, contact Jan Sieber at 623-742-6020.

###