Anthem Community Council announces 15th Anniversary logo contest winners

Anthem, Ariz. – The Anthem Community Council (ACC) is proud to announce the winners of the Anthem 15th Anniversary Celebration Committee’s art logo contest who were recognized during last night’s ACC Board of Directors meeting held at the Anthem Community Center (see attached photos).

Grand Prize winner Lindsay Boggs received $150 for her design. First Place People’s Choice winners Ellie Crampton (Level One; 5 yrs. and under), Abby Maxwell (Level Two; ages 6-10), Jazney Moss (Level Three; ages 11-18), and Krystal Carman (Level Four; ages 19+) received gift cards provided by Anthem Travel.

The Grand Prize winning logo, selected by a volunteer committee, will also be placed as the centerpiece for a commemorative quilt which will be displayed in the new Anthem Civic Building and used on select 15th Anniversary promotional and marketing materials throughout the year-long celebration.

On Oct. 26-27, more than 700 Autumnfest attendees filled out ballots to select their favorite logos for the “People’s Choice” awards that were presented in four different age categories. Earlier this year, Anthem residents of all ages, as well as non-resident Anthem Business owners/employees, and all students attending Anthem schools were invited to participate in the contest.

The logo contest kicks off a series of 15th Anniversary activities being planned throughout 2014, starting with the grand opening celebration of the new Anthem Civic Building on Jan. 25.
