Anthem celebrates grand opening of new Civic Building and 15th Anniversary kick off
Public invited to dedication ceremony, Jan. 25, 10 a.m.-2 p.m.

Anthem, Ariz. – The public is invited to celebrate the historic grand opening and dedication of the new Anthem Civic Building, 3701 W. Anthem Way, and the kick off to Anthem’s 15th Anniversary on Jan. 25, 2014, 10 a.m.-2 p.m.

The day’s festivities will include:

- Ribbon Cutting and Building Dedication (10:15 a.m.)
- Dedication of a commemorative quilt and 15th Anniversary Celebration Kick Off (11 a.m.)
- Installation of a Time Capsule (noon)
- Prize Drawings (noon/2 p.m.)
- Commemorative Giveaways to the first 100 attendees!

Throughout the day, visitors will enjoy a scavenger hunt, building tours, live musical performances, games, learning new exercise moves in the fitness studios, and taking part in a public art project (Memory Tree) that will be displayed in the building. The event is free and open to the public. Food will be available while supplies last.

Known as “Anthem’s Living Room,” the multi-purpose building is intended to encourage and inspire social, cultural, civic, and educational interactions, while serving as a “hub” for all who visit. In addition, it will:

- Provide indoor and outdoor space for recreational programs, classrooms, and other offerings
- Provide rental space for small and large community meetings and activities to facilitate meaningful and collaborative interaction
- Retain a strong and visible law enforcement presence within the boundaries of Anthem
- House Anthem Community Council and Homeowner Associations administrative services, and Non-profit space
- Offer a variety of programming that will provide educational, creative, and fitness opportunities
- Feature community art displays.
