SHOWDOWN OF THE SALSAS AT ANNUAL ANTHEM DAYS CONTEST, MARCH 25

Anthem, Ariz. – The competition is sure to be fierce as participants battle it out for the best salsa in the North Valley. Whether the recipe is spicy or mild, traditional or tropical, entries are currently being accepted for the annual Anthem Days Salsa Contest, held March 25 during Anthem Days in Community Park.

The contest is simple: entrants enter a gallon of their best homemade, made-from-scratch salsa to be sampled and judged. Entrants must be amateur, meaning they do not make a major portion of their income by cooking, and at least 18 years old. A full list of rules is available online.

Salsa will be judged based on taste, appearance and overall impression. Gift cards will be awarded for first-, second- and third-place finishers, and a People’s Choice winner (popular vote) will receive a plaque.

Special thanks to Legends Bar & Grill for providing chips for sampling, and for donating the prizes for the winners.

Enter the contest by March 17. The first 20 entries will accepted; one entry allowed per person.
